

Sponsor Needed for Observance of National Disaster Preparedness Day, 2012

National Disaster Preparedness Day (NDPD) is observed by the Government of Bangladesh every year on the last Thursday of March. This year the day will be observed on 29 March, 2012. At the national level various programmes such as- publishing Special Supplementary to the daily newspapers, talk shows in Radio and Televisions, rally, convocation of the day, earthquake evacuation drills at Dhanmondi Boy's High School and simulation exercise (search and rescues) on earthquake disaster shall be arranged at Fire Service and Civil Defence Complex. Her Excellency Ms Margareta Wahlostrom, UN Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General for Disaster Risk Reduction is expected to grace the programmes as Guest of Honour. UN Resident Coordinator in Bangladesh will be requested to grace the national seminar as a Special Guest. Similar Programmes will also be arranged by the district and upazila administrations through the country. Active participation in the said programmes and support of Development Partners, International and Local NGOs shall be welcomed for the following events:

1. Media Partner to cover the programmes
2. Simulation exercise on earthquake search and rescue
3. Special Supplementaries on daily newspapers
4. Radio and Television Talk shows

If interested to participate, please contact to:

Director General
Disaster Management Bureau
Tran and punarbashan Bhaban
92-93, Mohakhali C/A, Dhaka
Phone: 8858755 Fax: 8851615
Mobile: 01715017268
Email: dg@dmb.gov.bd